Book for Hope®, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit childhood cancer organization with nonpaid board members. Our mission is to give hope to children and families that cancer is not always a death sentence. In order to fulfill our mission we are using the book It's Christmas Again to educate children and families about experiences they may undergo after being diagnosed with cancer with words a child can understand as they fight to become a survivor. Our ultimate goal is to give the gift of hope until cancer is wiped off the face of the earth. Our events will benefit families in the Purchase Area and help fund childhood cancer research. By attending one of our events, purchasing a book, making a donation, or becoming a sponsor you will be joining in the fight against cancer. You can help make a difference by going to www.bookforhope.org.
